ONLINE AND IN-PERSON AT THE GSMC LIBRARY 9370 E WASHINGTON STREET, INDIANAPOLIS, IN 46229

USS Indianapolis - A Closer Look

presented by

RONALD P MAY,
author and World War II historian for this presentation on the history and legacy of the USS Indianapolis heavy cruiser during World War II. The presentation includes:

- An account of the ship's final voyage and sinking,
- The rescue of survivors,
- The subsequent efforts to preserve the legacy of the ship with the USS Indianapolis Memorial on the downtown canal and the survivor reunions that took place there,
- The USS Indianapolis exhibit at the Indiana World War Memorial,
- The discovery of the sunken ship in the Philippine Sea,
- And more recent ships to bear the name Indianapolis.

Ron will share stories of native Hoosiers who figure prominently in the story as well as fascinating back stories. He will also have copies of his new book entitled "World War II Indiana Landmarks" available for purchase and autograph.
