

Genealogical Society of Marion County

Presents:

Civil War Records at the Indiana State Archives

Vicki Casteel, Visual Collections Archivist, Indiana State Archives

More than 200,000 soldiers enlisted in Indiana regiments during the Civil War. This year marks the 150th anniversary of the start of the War Between the States.

Vicki Casteel will discuss the Civil War holdings of the Indiana State Archives, and offer a brief history of Camp Morton prison. Some of the collections discussed will include the new searchable database on the Indiana Digital Archives, the Enrollment of Soldiers, Widows and Orphans, the Veterans' Grave Registration, the 1862 Draft List, and the Indiana State Soldiers' Home Applications.

Saturday, October 1, 2011, 1:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m.

Crown Hill Waiting Station
Boulevard at 34th Street

Admission is FREE and everyone is Welcome

Vicki Casteel has been the Visual Collections Archivist with the Indiana State Archives since 1997. Since that time her responsibilities have expanded to Database Management, Public Outreach, and Content Development for exhibits and websites. She began researching the Camp Morton prisoners in 1990.

For more information about us, visit www.GenealogyIndy.org

For information on this program, email to: info@GenealogyIndy.org